“Mrs. Simpson” as I always called her was my neighbor during my entire childhood. She was a lovely lady who also seemed in the best of spirits and determined to handle whatever came her way. I always enjoyed spending time with her and she taught me so much about the plants that I love to tend to to this day. Mrs. Simpson, hopefully you will look down on my yard in The Woodlands and see all of your influence! May you have eternal peace. And whenever I see a hollyhock or moss rose, I'll think of you. Love, Eddie

“ I remember your mother fondly. She was a very sweet lady. She and your dad went on bank trips with the group and she was always in a good mood.
