Mark and his Union Wildcat teammates were our biggest rivals from 7th - 12th grade . One heck of an athlete and nice guy . Over the years , I felt he became more of a friend than a rival by the time we were seniors. I liked and respected him very much ! RIP Big Mark

“ My heart is broken. Mark and I were best of Buds at UHS....we were always together in sports, classes, and in life since the first day we meet in 7th grade at Clark Vitt Jr. High in Union, MO. Mark was a good man with a good heart and I will forever be blessed with the friendship we had at UHS....many of our favorite memories were the great times we had at the Lake with the rest of the guys!! Rest in Peace my Friend.
