“ My prayers are for Butch, and the family. We were neighbors, from birth until high school. Our families were good friends and played cards often. His grandmother crochet booties for me, when I was born, and I still have them. I have many pictures of our growing up and going to grade school together. I remember the bike rides, that some of us would take out in the country. I remember butchering days, at his home. Us kids would play while the adults worked all day. Those dinners were great.
Rest in peace.
