“ Was shocked, surprised and truly sorry to hear of Marvin's passing. He was a good and decent man. So sorry we were not in touch in the after-service years, but believe we will meet again someday. Condolences to his family & peace be with all who knew him.

“ To all the Ates and Welker family. Marvin is truly going to be missed. Wish we could have been there. I have known your dad a long time. He was a Good man. There aren't many left like him. Thank God he is not suffering anymore. Now he can be with Granny too and all who were waiting for him. Just remember the good times. And one day you will see him again. Our generation will take their place. Circle of life. God Bless and you in our prayers. Irene Kinder was coming with me and said to tell each of you She Loves You All. She's 89 years old as of June 9th. Health pretty bad. She's the very last. So God Bless
