“ Ron, I'm so sorry for you, Susan and Paul, and your grandchildren. I know to have lost Mary so suddenly adds to the depth of your sorrow. Mary was always kind to me as a little girl and as an adult. One of my favorite memories as a shy little girl is of visiting you with my big brother Mike and she took me to see her cat that had the biggest litter of kittens she ever knew of. How grand! A grown up who loved cats too! I will miss her Christmas card this year catching me up on your family. May you each feel the comfort of God's grace as he sees you through. Your neice and cousin, Cheri Noland

“ Ron, Susan and Paul, and grandchildren, my thoughts are with you at this time of sorrow. Mary was so strong and full of life, and her death was so unexpected, that it is hard to believe she is gone. I know that she is at peace now. Novella
