“We all feel sadness on the passing of Mary, but Mary and Ray will live forever in the children, grandchildren and great grandchildren then have bestowed upon us. There is a little bit of Mary in all of the people who exist because of the love shared by Mary and Ray. We are sad because we can no longer see Mary, but we are secure that she is with God and back in the arms of Ray. Rick Son-in-Law

“Sending my deepest condolences to your family for the loss of Mary. I worked with her many years ago while at the license bureau in Cape Girardeau and despite losing touch, have always held her in the highest regard. There is no doubt she was a bright & energetic star and she will be deeply missed!

“ Mary, was my "big sister" the years have flown by , however the memories will be forever. When Tim and I were first married, we lived in cape for awhile, we saw each other daily, then we moved and you don't realize how time goes by, I still make dinners that she taught me. Last year when I lost my mother and when I go to St. Louis she wasn't feeling well that day so we didn't have lunch, that we always did with Jim Jim would pick her up and we would spend hours reminiscing .she really missed Ray he had been her life. She has rejoined him. Along with her sister Ellen, brothers John, Jim and Tim, her parents William and Myrtle. They are all truly missed and loved . our St Patrick day party's will not be the same, however they will continue for this is family reunion time and we need to keep their memories alive with the rest of our family's. Rest in peace with all our love. And I know her love lives on in all of her children. God bless all your sisterinlaw Betty O'LEARY
