“ Molly was a great friend knew Jesus she would give the shirt off her back if you needed it and always had a ear to listen and a smile and a Hey sister when I'd call and God bless you when we were done..And do stuff for people she hardly even knew and asked nothing in return as the same for people she did know. Taking care of kids for people all the time before she got bad. I know she not in pain anymore and her soul is with her kin folks that have gone on before her and her husband John . I know she's smiling as she is meeting Jesus her lord and savoir she studied the Bible and prayed forgiveness of anything that she may have done wrong that day are years before. This is the Molly I knew and she love everybody.And she was so proud of all of her family and friends . Thank God it's not goodbye we will see her again. Love all of you in Molly s family.
