“ Rhonda, I am so so sorry to hear about your Mother. She and I use to talk often, especially about the Lord. My prayers are with you and your family. I know it seems like a loss, but you know where Arlene is and she knows where you are at. The only thing that really seperates you is time. Some day there will be a reunion in heaven never to be seperated again! Rhonda, I love you, even though we have not talked for ever, you guys seem like family to me. Perhaps soon we can talk. Let me know if there is anything I can do for you. Love you, Earlene
