“ Been missing you both Tim at our favorite lunchspot and just as of today asked our server Remy and she informed of why ---then together we shared our grief--we both were so fond of the pleasure of your Dad's company --always a bright spot of the day to see his smiling face and an anticipation of what jest he was up to today -- still have my Delaware quarter he completely fooled my sense of critical thinking -- --you may know it too and a clue is horses -- goodness he was such a joy and will miss him each time I walk in the restaurant --with deepest condolences for the loss of your beloved Dad Tim --may you rest assured he is in arms of the Savior Jesus beholding the joy of heaven and with your mom he so often spoke of --a prayer of gratitude for being able to meet you both ---

“ I'm Bill Haman's nephew Bob Juden. As a child I always enjoyed being around Bill, he was always up for a good time. We played, went to the movies, and always had a great time. He was a great role model and is one of the reasons I became a teacher. I will always be thankful for his presence in my life

“ Uncle Bill was my Mom's brother, thirteen years younger than her. The only Uncle I ever had. He was a prankster always chasing all nine of us kids around my grandmother's house. A jokester, who knows that when he opened up his wallet and showed us his "PRIDE AND JOY" card he wasn't talking about me???? Funny thing is I can still hear him laughing harder and louder than me!!! “ Mr. Haman was an impactful and inspiring teacher to me and so many others. Although I was only in 8&9 grades, (I had him for two different classes) he ignited in me a love of politics! (Jimmy Carter was running for office my 8th grade year) He made you think and when it came to government works, he knew his stuff! A great teacher has gone to that classroom in the sky having made a difference in one kids life for sure!
