“ Dear Joe and Family,
For sometime now, I have had Maxine on my mind.....I had received no Christmas card nor note from her the last two years and so just this evening I learn that she passed last month. Maxine and my mother, Dorotha Lewis, were dear friends growing up in Marked Tree. I met Maxine and Walt years ago when they made a trip to Michigan to visit my mom. After the passing of my mom, Maxine and I stayed in touch. She adored her family and her letters were filled with news of family events, weather and yard work. I've missed her. May she Rest In Peace in heaven now reunited with those who went before. My deepest sympathy.
