“ Mikey! I've known you since Faith and I were friends since 2nd or 3rd grade. You always were sneaking up on us, just wanted to hang with your sissy. Wherever you were, we were and it was a given you'd make us laugh so hard until we peed ourselves. You were loved and spoiled by your mom and sisters. I will always remember you Mikey. Now may you rest in peace with those who've gone before you. Give Faith a hug for me. My prayers to Chris, Tom, your wife, and all your family/friends who's trying to pick up the pieces. Your loss is tremendous and will ripple in our hearts for a long time.

“ We were friends in school. You were always so funny with your wise crack jokes. When my son was born eleven years ago you joked that I should name him Mike. I might not of named my son Keegan after you but my youngest daughter shares your birthdate April 8th. It has been nice seeing your posts over the years. Your loyalty to family and friends was remarkable. Who gets a tattoo to support a close friends business? You of course Connors!! Seeing your happiness when you got married was so nice to see. Rest In Peace.

I also will never forget at Cooks party you were running and plowed into me full blast knocking me down but you were so proud of me for not spilling my beer.
