Mike, along with his wife Melissa, owned Duncan Mechanical, LLC, providing heating, ventilation and air conditioning services to residential and commercial clients in the Tri-State area for over 22 years.

He was born July 31, 1959 and was the son of Rita M. (Winchester) Duncan and his adoptive father, Doyle V. Duncan.

Mike attended Cahokia High School in Cahokia, Illinois. At the age of 19, he began working in the HVAC trade in the Los Angeles, California area. Mike was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses July 8, 1989 at a District Convention of Jehovah's Witnesses at Dodger Stadium in Los Angeles. He regularly shared in Bible educational work and spent countless hours volunteering his time, labor and expertise in the construction of Kingdom Halls in the Tri-State area. During the past two years, he spent a total of six weeks as a volunteer during the construction of the new World Headquarters of Jehovah's Witnesses in Warwick, New York.

Mike's reputation for dependability and honest business practices was instrumental in the growth of his HVAC business. One large corporate client said of him: "Mike was a great person to work with and vital to our organization. ... He was also a very good, loyal and honest man, which was the foundation for us having such a long and successful working relationship together.”

On November 4, 1989, Mike married Melissa Carol Hill, who survives with their son, Michael Lucas.

Other survivors include father-in-law and mother-in-law Bill and Carolyn Hill of Gilbertsville, Kentucky., brother-in-law and sister-in-law Joe and Lisa Hill of Bertrand, Missouri, brother-in-law and sister-in-law Vijay and Valerie Bhatia of Holmes, New York, niece Emily (Atsuki) Morishita of China; and nephews Nicholas and Alexander Bhatia of Holmes, New York.

“ Mike was truly one of the nicest people you could ever meet. We got to know Mike because we are in the HVAC wholesale business and he was a valued customer but he was so much more than a customer, he became a good friend throughout the years. He will be missed by so many.
