“ It does not surprise me to see the number of people who have been impacted by Mike's untimely passing. It is a mark of his character and life that he will continue to be loved and remembered long past this sad time for things such as his smile, his charisma and his remarkable sense of humor. While I, like some others, didn't know Mike well, his passing deeply saddens me. I pray that all of Mike's family and friends will find solace and comfort in the community of people around them who are there for them through this time of grief.
