“ I met Mila when we both roomed together at SEMO. I became part of her family and spent many weekends with Mila at her home in Essex. Jim and Hazel treated me like another daughter. We had great fun and got in to many escapades. I remember staying at the Lohmeiers farm many times and was so happy for John and Mila when Jimmy came along. Farewell but not goodbye. See you again.
Love, Shirley

I had the great privilege to teach with Mila for many years at Nell Holcomb. We were friends and coordinated some of our music/art shows over the years. I also got to teach Jimmy and then his two children, J.R. and Caroline all of whom were a pleasure.

I am so sorry for your loss. She will be remembered and missed by so many.

Mrs. Lohmeier was very talented, a great music teacher and demanded a lot of her students. Thankfully, I gained a fond appreciation for music, thanks to her. Unfortunately, despite her ability to teach well, the only musical instrument I can play is the radio....sorry, Mrs. Lohmeier, I know you tried your best!

Praying for peace, comfort, and understanding for the family.
