

Milton George

May 4, 2012

Milton Armor George, 79, of Cape Girardeau, passed away Friday, May 4, 2012 at Southeast Hospital in Cape Girardeau. He was born November 27, 1932, in St. Louis, Missouri, son of Homer Armor George and Ruth Elizabeth Ingram George. Milton graduated from Cape Girardeau Central High School and St. Louis College of Pharmacy. Upon graduation he joined the family business, Broadway Prescription Shop, with his father Homer. He purchased the business from his father, and upon retirement in 1998 sold the business to his brother Harry George. After retirement he worked as a relief pharmacist, when needed, at Main Street Pharmacy in East Prairie, and Special Design Health Care in Cape Girardeau. He and Marjorie Deimund were married June 25, 1954 at First Baptist Church in Cape Girardeau. Milton became a member of First Baptist Church in 1972. He served as a deacon and Chairman of Administration on the church council. He was a member of the Evening Optimist Club and served as president. He was a board member of the Gibson Recovery Center and was president of the board for 14 years. He also served on the Southeast Missouri Hospital Board. He was a 32 Degree Mason. He was a member of the Southeast Missouri Pharmacy Association. In addition to his Missouri pharmacy license, he was licensed in Arkansas and Tennessee. Milton loved and enjoyed the outdoors and he was an avid duck, pheasant, and turkey hunter. He enjoyed working in his vegetable garden as well as growing flowers. Loving survivors include his wife Marjorie; his two daughters, Tamara George Stewart and husband Jim, and Kimberly Dawn

George; and son, Milton A. "Kip" George II, and wife Joanne; six grandchildren, Gabriel, Adrian, and Angie Lascano; Samuel, Finn, and Tessa George. He is also survived by brother, Harry George, and wife Shelia. He was preceded in death by his parents, sister, Patricia, and twin children, Mark and Debbie. In accordance with his wishes, Milton donated his body to Washington University for medical research. Visitation will be held at First Baptist Church, 1289 Lexington, Cape Girardeau, on Monday May 7, from 4 to 7 pm. The memorial service will follow at 7 pm. It will be officiated by Rev. Michael Shupert. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Gibson Recovery Center, 340 South Broadview St., Cape Girardeau, or First Baptist Church, 1289 Lexington, Cape Girardeau.

“ The pain of losing someone you love can be overwhelming; I too know that pain. I did not know Mr. George personally, however, I sincerely hope that your family finds comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will 'wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more.' (Revelation 21:4) What a wonderful day that will be!

“ *Marjorie and family: My sympathy for the loss of Milton. I hold fond memories of Milton, especially during my formative days in high school when Keith Deimund and I shared time with Milton in the pharmacy shops. My prayers and thoughts are with you today.
