“ Aunt Miriam and Uncle Vernon were always so welcoming to me when I was a teenager and I practically lived at their house. Quite often she would set an extra plate for me at the dinner table. I have very fond memories of Miriam. She lived a long life, both giving and receiving lots of love with her family. Enjoy heaven, Aunt Miriam! Prayers to all the family that will miss her dearly.

“ I lived next door to Miriam for over 40 years and watched her kids and grandkids grow up as they showed up regularly every Saturday to have lunch together. I will miss seeing her sitting outside on her deck and us waving to each other when I would be outside playing in the back yard with my dog or mowing my lawn. She was a good neighbor and friend. Rest In Peace Miriam. (Alice Schweer)
