“ As one of Jeff's good friends growing up I'm thankful to have wonderful memories of Monty. Monty was our soccer coach for the longest time, I still remember the maroon "Mineweld" CAYSA jerseys and taking the boat to tube and ski (Jeff on the slalom).

I have great memories of both Monty and Liz. To Jeff and Mark and the extended family members I'm keeping you all in my thoughts and prayers, Godspeed and God bless Monty.

“ Monty was a good friend of my dad, Don Eaker, so he was at our house at least once a week when I was a little kid. Monty was my god-father and was such a special person to me growing up. My deepest condolences to Mark and Jeff and their families. He will be missed by many.

“ Monty was good friends with my brother, Don Eaker. During the 60s, Monty was often at our house for Sunday lunch or supper ... and without fail ... Mom fixed fried chicken which was not Monty's favorite meal. Monty was spotless in his appearance, nice, and always smiling ... he was simply a great guy. May I extend my deepest sympathy to his sons and family.
