“ I worked at the Sweet Shop Bakery on William St. in the late 1990's. Raymond & Myrtle came in regularly and enjoyed a cup of coffee and a donut or 2 as well as some good conversation and visiting. She was always so kind and funny. When I was in the process of buying a house they wanted me to know, since I was fairly new to Cape, that I needed to "buy on the high side of the street" to avoid flooding. :) I have always remembered their advice and Myrtle's sweet nature.

“ Myrtle was my Mom's closest friend in addition to being her cousin. I will always remember her laughing at one my Dad's silly jokes while they played "SORRY". After we moved to Knoxville, she called me for several years on my birthday. What a wonderful phone call to receive. She will remain in my heart and always be loved.
