Myrtle was my first cousin, our mothers were sisters. I thought of her often over the years. She stayed with my family for a while when I was very small and I always thought she was a very classy lady. I wish I could learn where her sister Patricia is. She pretty much left the family and I don't believe anyone knew where she went. I loved all three of the girls dearly and send my condolences to her nieces and nephews. May she rest in peace. ~Linda Strange Priddy, Herrin, IL
