

Nadine Engelmann

September 30, 2011

Beatrice Nadine Engelmann, 79, of Cape Girardeau, died Friday, Sept. 30, 2011 at Fountainbleau Lodge in Cape Girardeau. She was born Feb. 3, 1932 in Grassy, Mo., to Martin L. and Grace Cordelia Rhodes Jackson. She and Cleman Engelmann were married Jan. 1, 1950 at Oak Ridge, Mo. He preceded her in death March 3, 1987. She was very active in church most of her life. She was church pianist and organist for many years at Iona Baptist Church in Oriole, Mo. She loved and enjoyed her children, grandchildren and especially her great- grandchildren. She also loved cooking and entertaining friends and was a very good seamstress. With her love for children, she enjoyed her position as school cook for many years. She was a graduate of Delta High School. Survivors include a son, Steven Engelmann (Susan) of Cape Girardeau; two daughters, Vickie Bryant (Gary) and Sherrie Simmons (Tim Davis), both of Cape Girardeau; nine grandchildren, James (Jackie), Justin (Liz) and Joel Engelmann; Janelle (Keith) Caldwell, Josh (Michelle) Bryant, Jennifer (Shawn) Davis, Chris (Jessica) Simmons, Scott Minner and Nicole, Trevor Pearman and 17 great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, six brothers and four sisters. Visitation will be 4 to 8 p.m. today at Ford & Sons Sprigg Street funeral home. The funeral will be held at 1 p.m. Monday at the funeral home with Rev. Tommy Jackson officiating. Burial will follow at Fairmont Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be given to Nell Holcomb Music Department.

Tribute Wall

SN

“ Steve, so sorry for your loss. You are in my prayers

Steve Nickell - March 10, 2011 at 12:00 AM

CS

“ Vickie, Steve and Sherrie: My deepest sympathy to you and your families in the loss of your mother. I will always cherish the wonderful memories of all the hours I spent in the home of your parents. They always made me feel like "family". You are all in my thoughts and prayers.

Carolyn Seabaugh - February 10, 2011 at 12:00 AM