“ I think Nancy was in my Brownie troop. She was definitely the first friend my own size I had after birth -- our mothers shared an apartment on Broadway while our daddies were at the War. Her steadfast friendship and ethical Everything formed a solid background for me and many others. Her contributions stand on their own as a life well lived. She will be dearly missed.

Fly free, Nancy. They've been saving a Chair for you in heaven.

“ Nancy was a dear friend and adviser to all of us in the Southeast Missouri Journalism Teachers Association all of those wonderful years ago. Treasured memories of the activities she helped direct to benefit the cause of student journalism!

Nancy Bray was sincere, so friendly, so humble, so concerned about others, and so lovely in so many ways. I was blessed to grow up with her!

“I share two memories of my connection with the Brays and the Semo Alma Mater which was written by Alton's friend, Wilhelmina Vieh! We sang it to each other at the strangest of times. It was our "love lullaby"! And Alton, I am certain, will direct!
