“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will 'swallow up death forever, and wipe the tears from all faces' by means of his only-begotten son Jesus. (Isaiah 25:8) What a wonderful day that will be!

“ Sheryl and Family, Our greatest sympathy and prayers are with you all in your difficult time of loss. We know your father received the absolute best of care to the very end, and while the world grieves the loss of a man of integrity, your mother and other angels in Heaven are rejoicing. God Bless you all.

“ When I was less than a year old I was determined to be anemic and Uncle Lindy, who is A- like myself, gave me a blood transfusion. I suppose that's why I'm so wise and gregarious. He always called his older Brother Floyd, my father, Bud. All my Uncles were giants. Big hearts, big laughs, and wonderful memories. So long with our love Uncle Lindy.
