Norma was born on August 18, 1939, to Elmer and Agnes - Meyers Sturgeon in Hahn, Missouri. She is survived by four daughters, Janean (Mike) Wilke of Cape Girardeau, Mo, Jamie (Linn) Corbin of Springfield, Mo. Laura (Greg) Criddle of Burfordville, Mo, and Amy Coleman of Cape Girardeau; sister, Corrine Ledbetter, sister, Karen (Jackie) Patton; brother, Johnnie Sturgeon; sister-in-law, Doris Jean Sturgeon; twelve grandchildren, Brandon (Jenny), Diana, Matthew, Bethany (Donovan), Duke, Emily, Tyler, Lane, Landrie (Lane), Brenden, Breyanah, Breven; and eleven great-grandchildren, Summer, Kaden, Skyler, Malachi, Elliana, Kinsley, Adalynn, Drew, August, Ransom, and Hazel.

She was preceded in death by her parents; brother, Charles Sturgeon; and her husband Larry Moore.

She married the late Larry Moore on December 18, 1976. They had so much fun together!

She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She throughally enjoyed working at SEMO in the dormitories. She was considered

"Mom" by many of the students. She will be remembered by her sweetness and sense of humor. She had an uncanny knack of seeing faces in inanimate objects, and loved to share what she saw. This is called pareidolia, finding patterns in randomness.

A private family graveside celebration of life will be held Friday, September 30th, at 1 P.M. at the Bollinger County Memorial Park Cemetery.

Ford & Sons Funeral Home - Mt. Auburn is in charge of arrangements.

“Corrine, Karen and girls, I am so sorry for your loss, wish I could have been there today to give you all a hug. I have very fond memories of Norma Jean visiting mother (Laverne Eaker). They would tell stories of things that happened when they were growing up as cousins. The two of them would laugh and carry on like school girls again. At one point I might've been in junior high or may be a freshman but Janean and Jami were very young and they wanted a haircut or Norma Jean wanted a haircut for them so I did a bob on both of them. Norma Jean loved it. She was always so sweet and energetic. I'm sending my love and hugs to all. Beth Ruff... Curtis & Laverne Eaker's daughter known as Bethel.
