

Odelia Daniel

August 25, 2009

Odelia Elizabeth Daniel, 85, of Cape Girardeau, died Tuesday, August 25, 2009 at The Lutheran Home. She was born May 16, 1924 in Charleston, Mo. the daughter of Thomas Edward and Mathilda Pearl Roach Daniel. Odelia lived on the farm with her parents in Charleston where she was a member of St. Henry's Parish. After her father died, she and her mother moved to Cape Girardeau in the mid-1950's. She was a devout Catholic and member of St. Mary Cathedral in Cape Girardeau. She worked in the welfare office in Charleston and had also been a stenographer. Survivors include thirteen nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents; two brothers, Thomas William and John Franklin Daniel; one sister, Anna Mae Betz; and one niece, Anne Daniel Webster. Friends may call 9:00 AM to 9:45 AM on Friday, August 28, 2009 at Ford & Sons Mt. Auburn Funeral Home. Funeral mass will be at 10:00 AM Friday, August 28, 2009 at St. Mary Cathedral in Cape Girardeau with the Rev. Tom Kiefer officiating. Burial will follow at Calvary Cemetery in Charleston.

Tribute Wall

KD

“ Odelia was my loving godmother and dear aunt. She prayed more than anyone else I ever knew. Perhaps it was her prayers that brought so many blessings into my own life. I know there is a special place in heaven for Aunt Delia. ”

---

Kathryn Betz Duello - May 12, 2015 at 12:00 AM