“ Please accept my heart felt condolence. I have nothing but found memories of Oscar and had the greatest respect for him and always considered him a true friend of the family. One of my enduring memories is when he helped us build the barn behind the house. What a true friend. Chuck Baldwin

“ Seyer family, sorry to hear about your loss. Oscar was always good to me growing up. I am proud to have known Oscar as a friend, neighbor, and a true American hero for his selfless service to our country during WWII. I regret that I will not be able to travel to Cape for the funeral. Take care, Brad Baldwin and family.
