

Pamela Farmer

May 3, 1954 - May 17, 2022

With profound sadness, Pamela Jean (Amelung) Farmer (Pam) (Nanny) entered in to rest on May 17, 2022 at the family home in Cape Girardeau, MO following a long time battle with stage IV Pancreatic Cancer.

Pam was the dear wife of Kevin Farmer, of Cape Girardeau, MO. The two were wed on July 22, 1972 and faithfully devoted to one another for over 50 years.

She is the cherished mother of Brandon (Laura) Farmer of San Diego, CA and Adam (Amanda) Farmer of Jackson, MO and proud grandmother or Nanny, as they called her, to 6 grandchildren Evan, Hailey, Caleb, Madison, Chloe and Emery Farmer.

She is survived by her sister Sandy (Amelung) Courtney of Bonne Terre, MO, her brother James Amelung of San Antonio, TX, her brother in law Gary Farmer of St Augustine, FL and her sister in law Donal (Farmer) Browning (Dennis) of Cape Girardeau, MO and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by both of her parents James and Maggie (Kyle) Amelung.

She was a true follower of Christ. Pamela attended Cape First Church for nearly two decades.

Pam was a dedicated wife, mother, sister, grandmother and friend. She spent her days instilling Godly values and blessing. Her eternal impact on each and every person she served is immeasurable. She leaves behind a legacy of loyalty and love. Pamela will be dearly missed and forever ingrained in our hearts.

“ The last time I saw Aunt Pam was in 2021 when she came to visit me and my family in FL, along with Uncle Kevin. We had a really nice visit. She was such an amazing woman and so giving and loving. I'll always treasure my memories and so happy I was able to see her when I did. Love and miss you, Aunt Pam! Lisa Tomczak
