“ I am saddened to learn only today of Pat's death. Her brother, Ralph Flowers and I Marie Flowers took her in for a short time in Albuquerque NM. I was only 4 years older that Pat but she really loved me as I loved her and Ralph and I gave her a home. We had her in church with us being in a youth group. RIP Pat.

“ In the 40 plus years that I have known her, I can't think of one bad memory, she was always entertaining and good for a laugh. A wonderful person to spend time with. I think my favorite memories are of her fussing at our dad, keeping him in his place, and she and I on the quest for the elusive White Squirrel. She will be missed
