“ I just learned of Paul's passing. I was shocked and saddened. I knew Paul for many years and saw him at many gun shows. He was a pleasure to know and honest as the day is long. My sincere condolences on your loss. He will be missed by many!

“ Paul was a fixture at the Sands Pancake House where I worked for many years. He was a good man and purchased many meals for those in need; however he never wanted people to know he did it, he was too humble. He will be missed by all that knew him, a true Christian man. Becky and Robert Welker

“ Joey: Mary Alice and I want you to know we are asking God's peace to comfort you at this time. I have known Paul since 1970 when he did landscaping for me on Georgia Street. He ALWAYS wore a smile when I saw him, extending a warm and friendly handshake, even very recently when I saw him at the funeral for Wayne Eubanks. He was a good man who wanted to serve the Lord and others. I am sure he will be greatly missed. In HIS love, Norm & Mary Alice Tullis

Paul attended Red Star Baptist Church years ago. We were told that he and Clifford attended mass with their mother on Sunday and then came to Red Star with their dad. I don't know if that anecdote is true, but we were very impressed.

I've known Paul for over 40 years. I live in St. Louis but that did not keep us apart as we saw each other on the average of once a month. Our business dealings always were fair for both of us. I will miss him dearly.

“ We were so saddened to hear of Paul's passing, and equally sad that we're currently out of town. A few years ago, when Pam and I served at Lynwood, both Paul and Joey were always there to help in anyway they could. Paul will be greatly missed, praying for Joey.

“ The last time we talked he had called to check on me. I asked how he was and he said he was a little under the weather. I told Paul Dee and I would pray for him by name and he should prepare himself for the great blessing he was going to receive. Little did I know what was about to happen. His Heavenly Father called his faithful son home. Truly great man, friend, and brother in Christ. We will miss him tremendously. God bless Joey and their family.
