“ Every time we think of Yvonne, it will be with a smile. Not only was Yvonne a wonderful first cousin, but she managed to bring humor and love to every family gathering. Melinda and I will always cherish that about her, and we know that her absence leaves a huge hole in the hearts of her many children, grandchildren, both great and 'great-great.' Yvonne once said she'd rather spend her days simply leaning back and watching the kids interact as it was the best entertainment around. We love her dearly, will miss her, but know that she has them laughing in heaven.
