“ Dear Jerry, Tammy, Lisa and the rest of your family. I am so sorry that Peg has passed on. Jerry and Peg were and are so dear to me. I have the most wonderful memories of you at the lake when Mother and Daddy boated with you for so many years. My heart is filled with sadness that such a wonderful loving and fun spirited lady as Peg has left this world. You are in my thoughts and prayers always.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of Peg. I think what will always stick with me is that smile and that gentle sweet voice. She shared my mother's name and she was so wonderfully motherly. I always knew that if she knew I was in need she was first of all praying for me and second of all would do anything she possibly do to help. So many times a gift would come my way from "Peg's mad money". My life has been blessed beyond measure by knowing and being loved by this dear and godly woman. I want so much to be sad for myself but I hear her voice in my head: "don't you be crying girl, you know we'll see each other again". I look forward to it sweet lady. I love you!

“ I remember first meeting Ms.Peg at a VBS at Cape Bible Chapel. She was so kind, and fun to work with.I had the blessing of being part of her Bible study group, for several years, she fed us, wonderfully with her cooking, then we were fed the spiritual food of the Word of God by her sweet husband, Jerry. Later, I learned that she had a special way of meeting people's needs, a prom dress for our daughter, hugs and a good listening ear, a prayer warrior, a wonderful meal, a smile when you needed it most. She even gave me her car, because she knew I was going to be driving back and forth weekly 120 miles round trip, to care for my Mom. It says in the Bible, we get jewels in our crowns for the things we do for others in His name, then we give that to our Lord. Wow, what a crown Jesus will get from Ms. Peg, it will be fantastic; for her life was a living testimony for Him! We will miss you so much, but are so glad you were a part of our lives while we had you.

“ Lisa, I'm so sorry to hear of your mom's passing. I remember many, many, many years ago us doing a "practice run" for the "talent show" to The Beatles "Bang, Bang, Maxwell's Silver Hammer" with your mom as our audience, she loved it, of course!. I also remember your parents taking us (which was my first time) to the Purple Crackle to eat. She was awesome then and I know still is even though it's been many, many years since I last saw her. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers.

“ The memory I have is this: A couple years back I remember when Ricky and I were so sick, we could not hardly get up out of bed! Could not go anywhere at all! But there was a person that called me during that time and told me she was bringing soup over. She did! A huge crockpot full of homemade chicken noodle soup was sitting in front of the garage door for us! I will never forget that. That precious soul passed away today. I will forever remember her. She even messaged me to see what she could do to help our son and daughter in law in Washington state when they were having a rough time! I love you Peggy Pollard! I will see you again my friend! You are now singing with the angels!
