

Phoebe Michelle Brooks

October 26, 2008 - October 10, 2015

Phoebe Michelle Brooks, 6, of Cape Girardeau, entered eternal rest on Saturday, October 10, 2015.

She was born October 26, 2008 in Cincinnati, Ohio to Clifton R. and Kristen (Koch) Brooks, III.

Phoebe was small but mighty and loved her family and friends deeply. She was a spunky first grader at St. Vincent de Paul Elementary who loved animals, art and chocolate milk. She touched many lives in her short time with us and those who knew her will never forget her. She will be missed by so many.

She is survived by her parents; sisters, Elizabeth Ann and Chloe Rachel Brooks; maternal grandparents, Fred (Denise) Koch of Cincinnati, Ohio; paternal grandmother, Amy S. Brooks of St. Cloud, Florida.

Phoebe was preceded in death by her paternal grandfather, Clifton R. Brooks, Jr.

A celebration of life will be Thursday, October 15, 2015 at La Croix United Methodist Church at 7:00 p.m. with pastors Jeremy Kallin and Matt McDonald officiating. Visitation will be from 3:00 p.m. until the service time at the church.

Burial will take place at a later date at Spring Grove Cemetery in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Memorial donations may be given to Southeast Missouri Young Life, P.O. Box 928, Cape Girardeau, MO 63702-0928.

Phoebe, her name, means "bright and shining one". This description fits her perfectly.

I can still see her, "Miss Kelli, I want to hold your hand. Do you want to hold mine?"

“ Cliff, Krissy, and girls,

We are friends of Kim's from college - Krissy sang in our wedding in '98 - and we mourn with you, are praying for you, and delight in this sweet pictures being posted.

*Krissy, Phoebe looks as precocious, spunky, and joyful as you are!!!
What a treasure! Praying that God blesses you with laughter through tears as you recall moments that bring joy, and that you trust firmly that God is near, that the Holy Spirit is your comforter and will comfort. Praying that others will comfort you, too, with the comfort which they have received. You are suffering, but it will not be in vain. God will use Phoebe's life and death in a powerful way.*

“ I'll never forget the first time I saw, Phoebe. She had on her little pink (I believe) helmet, crazy little ringlet curls sticking out every which way, little glasses and a smile as big as the sky. She was so little, yet bound and determined to climb up and down the steps at Laura and Tom's house to play with the bigger kids. You couldn't help but just want to pick her up and squeeze her, she was so stinkin cute. I can hear Kris know with an eye roll and chuckle, "Phooeebbbeee" as to say this was a common occurrence and Miss Phoebe was adventurous at such a tiny size. That smile and those precious curls is one of those memories that I will never forget because when I picture her, I smile. Although, we haven't spent a lot of time with the Brooks family, they are just one of those families that you love to be around. They have an infectious joy and kindred spirits. I can't even imagine the brokenness they are feeling. My heart aches for them. Kris, Cliff, Lizzie and Chloe, you are an incredible family. Your strong faith is a witness. Although your lives are forever changed, I am confident that our Heavenly Father will bring you through this. I can only imagine.....Miss Phoebe in heaven. I can only imagine, your reunion someday. God bless your broken hearts,

“Kris and Cliff, my heart aches for you as I write this. I am so sorry for your loss. I would like to share how much I looked forward to seeing your little Phoebe every morning at school. Our routines were such that, as I was leaving from taking Sophie to her room, Phoebe would be walking in. She never failed to look at me, smile, and say hello to me. Seeing her sweet smiling face was always a bright spot in my day, and I will truly miss it! Kris,

I never had the pleasure of meeting Phoebe (and tell Lizzy I miss working with her on floor and beam-she was one of my favorite gymnasts and such a hard worker), but when picking Gray up from school, every time I saw your little one in her class line, I would always think, "That is the CUTEST little girl ever!" Her tiny face and those big glasses and even bigger smile just made your heart melt.

I cannot imagine your grief and words absolutely fail me here, but I wanted you and your family to know what a gift she had to be able to touch the lives of people she had not ever met.
