“ To : Ken, Bobbie, Kenny, LaRae During this trying time, faced with the circumstances that life has presented, we know that your hearts are saddened. We will pray that the hand of God will deliver comfort to your hearts, as God has granted us the blessing of knowing you. Comfort in times like these can only come from those we consider our friends, and God himself who has the power to wipe all tears away. When burdens of life are more than we can bear, we must lay them at the cross, for he has paid the ultimate price for our eternal life, and that wonderful reunion with all those who have gone on before us. If you need us we will be there.
