“ After Uncle Raymond retired, I always enjoyed hearing about his battles with the squirrels and keeping them out of his garden. Mom would also share fun and hard times of them growing up on the farm and Uncle Raymond riding his motorcycle.

Uncle Raymond was the fun uncle. And because he worked at Moon he had great swag and liquor decor for my house. He and Elsie would always invite me over in the summer for a week of city life when I was a kid. Much different then the farm. But his fish stories were over the top. RIP.

Raymond worked with my Step-Father at Moon Dist. I knew the whole gang there. Great people. Almost felt like family. Enjoyed seeing Raymond his wife occasionally. I had been thinking of him and wondering where he might be. .

Just wanted to express my sympathy as I will be going out of town this weekend and can't be there. May God grant to everyone in the family His strength to endure your sadness, His peace knowing he's in heaven with his Savior, and His comfort knowing you are not alone but are surrounded with His love.

I HAVE FOND MEMORIES OF RAYMOND. WE WOULD ALL GET TOGETHER DURING THE SUMMER AT LAKE WAPAPELLO AND BUILD BOMB FIRES. HE WAS THE MASTER. HE ALSO TAUGHT ME TO SKI ON ONE SKI WATERSKIING AND PULLED ME BEHIND HIS BOAT... WE HAD A BLAST THOSE YEARS AT THE LAKE, MY FONDEST MEMORIES IN MY LIFE. RAYMOND WAS A GOOD OL BOY. HIM AND ELSIE WILL ALWAYS HAVE A SPECIAL PLACE IN MY HEART...

Remember the many great times camping and skiing on Lake Wappapellow back in the 70's. Raymond and Elsie were really good people and Elsie was Vince Raddle's secretary back then when I was teaching at May Greene. RIP Raymond. 🙏🙏🙏🙏
