“ The pain of losing someone you love is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to death as 'the last enemy.' May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will have our enemy 'brought to nothing.' (1Corinthians 15:26) What a wonderful day that will be!

“ So sad to hear about Aunt Becky passing away. However I never called her my Aunt, because we were kids together. The times I remember most, are us playing, and her bossing us younger kids around. lol We rode horses, played in the creek, took trips to parks, played school, went to rodeos, and bailed hay. Never forget the day she fell off a big rock at Elephant Rock. That was very scary. But mostly have lots of memories of us doing fun stuff together. Moved to Texas when I turned 18 and only visited with her few times after that. Was glad the last time, she seemed very happy with her new husband and life in general. My thoughts and prayers are with him and the rest of the family. Wish my Mom and I could come to the funeral. We'll be there in spirit. RIP Becky

“ I was saddened to hear of Rebecca's passing. Rebecca was a classmate and what I remember best about her is her sunny disposition and smile. I don't believe I ever recall seeing Rebecca without that sweet smile. My condolences to the family. May God Bless.

“ I wish to send my heartfelt deep prayers in the loss of your loved one. I attended high school with Rebecca. I will always remember her cheerful smile and positive energy she brought to the many activities we participated in together. May she rest in peace.
