“ We were so sorry to learn of Rex's passing. The last time we visited he had come to Dexter and came out to the farm for a while. He and your mom were such delightful people always full of laughter and good cheer. They were so proud of you boys. Praying that your grief will be eased by the knowledge that your father was a good and loving christian man and that we have hope that we will one day meet again.

“ Such a sad time for all of those who knew Rex. We've had so many good times together over the past 50 years. Our "gang" will never be the same. This is our second loss in the past three years. Pat Haenni
