“ Tammy & family, I am so sorry that Rich has lost his battle with cancer. I have been & will continue to keep all of you in my prayers. Though I didn't know him well, I know from you that he was a loving husband & father. I pray that God grant you peace & the strength to get through these coming days. I'm sorry that I can't come to the funeral to tell you in person, but please accept my sympathy. Love, Dolores

“ I work for Midwest Sheets and had spoken to Richard countless times over the phone. Although I never had the pleasure to meet him in person I felt I knew him very well. He was a very nice and friendly person and even if not at the same level as family and close friends he will be dearly missed by everyone at Midwest Sheets. God bless.
