“ Bob was my cousin. We shared many memories growing up. We are same age. My dad and his mom were siblings so there are many memories there as we visited quite often. I'm having a mass said for him here. He learned how to make bonsai trees when he was in service overseas. He showed us how to make them. He had an orange tree he grew this way. It had the tiniest oranges on it.
Condolences to Tom and rest of family.

Bob and I were classmates all through grade school and high school. We were close friends during grade school. I can still picture their house on E. Cape Rock Dr. Hi Dad and mine were friends, too.
