“ One of my sweetest childhood memories of our summer visits to Missouri was knowing that I could always depend on my cousin, Rodney to share in the joys of life in a rural world; running barefoot through the wet grasses, eating watermelon on the back porch, setting off fireworks on the Fourth of July, and riding that old "whirlybird" that always seemed to be "waiting" just for us on the back lawn. Rodney introduced me to the "art" of catching fireflies on those humid Dexter evenings at dusk, and storing them in mason jars with plenty of breathing holes on the lid. His sense of humor, charm, and great energy for new ventures will always be alive in my heart. Mom and I send our love and prayers to Pam, Alicia, Preston, Doris Jean, Gary and Cynthia. May God bless you and bring you much comfort at this time.
