

Rodney Otis Weir

March 13, 1956 - January 11, 2020

Rodney Otis Weir, 63, of Cape Girardeau, Missouri died Saturday, January 11, 2020 at Saint Francis Medical Center.

He was born March 13, 1956 in Lawrenceville, Illinois to Ronald Otis and Sue Snider Weir.

Rod was a graduate of Southeast Missouri State University.

He was retired from KBSI where he was a sales executive. Previously he worked for Rust & Martin.

He loved playing golf, tennis, poker and other games. He was a phenomenal spades player. He loved the Missouri outdoors, especially, fishing and floating and enjoyed wine. He also cherished attending his kids' events when they were younger and spending time with his family.

Survivors include his mother, Sue (Charlie Ladd) Weir of Desloge, Missouri; one daughter, Hannah (John) Gandt of Columbia, Missouri; one son, Robert Weir of Cape Girardeau; one brother, Eric (Kim) Weir of Fenton, Missouri; one sister, Tonji (Ted) Siegel of Eureka, Missouri; two grandchildren, Rylie and Charlotte Gandt; and one brother-in-law, Kevin Worland of Omaha, Nebraska.

He was preceded in death by his father, Ronald Otis Weir and one sister, Glenna Worland.

The family will have a private memorial service.

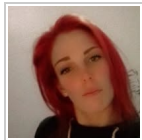

Memorial contributions may be given to American Diabetes Association.

“ I was always there for you I helped bathe you, did your treatments sometimes and cleaned for you. I spent much time with you. I could always talk to you when I had no one else. No matter what time or what you had going on I was always welcome. Gosh I miss your jokes and just being with you!! I will always love you! I'm lost without you but you're not suffering anymore. I know you'll watch over me
