

Ronald Inman

July 12, 2008

Ronald Dean Inman, 54, of Cape Girardeau, Mo. died Saturday, July 12, 2008 at Carbondale Memorial Hospital in Carbondale, Ill. He was born April 12, 1954, in Poplar Bluff, Mo., the son of Alvin and Bonnie Lee Spradling Inman. He and Susan Clark were married on September 29, 2007 at an intimate backyard ceremony in Cape Girardeau, Missouri. Inman received his Masters Degree in Nursing from Southeast Missouri State University. He served in the Army during the Vietnam War. Throughout his life, he deeply touched the hearts of all who met him. As a nurse practitioner at Benton Comprehensive Family Health Care, he exemplified the meaning of commitment, compassion and care for every patient that he had the joy of serving. His selfless acts and duty to others became a symbol for which his family knew him best. As a husband he provided love and security and as a father he encouraged self-discipline, independence and respect for others. His greatest joys in life were fishing with his son and spending time with his grandchildren and dogs Rusty, Will, Daisey Mae and Soozy. He will be sadly missed by all those whose life he touched. Survivors include his wife; two sons, Chris (Danielle) Inman, Michael (Becky) Inman; daughter, Deanna Inman; Stepson, Tristan Frayser; four stepdaughters, Laura (Delbert) Murphy, Chelsea (Todd) Williams, Alleigh White, Lindsey Frayser; father & stepmother, Alvin & Olama Inman; mother & stepfather, Bonnie & Guy Dicks; three grandchildren, Andrew Inman, McKayla Allen, Clair Williams, uncles & aunts, Gary & Shelby Beardsley, Norman & Francis Inman, Nellie & Marcie; brother, Alvin Inman;
