“ David,
This is Vicky Seabaugh McDowell. I don't know if you remember me from our childhood. My parents owned the grocery store on Spanish Street near where you lived. "Duke" helped my dad at the store sometimes. Such a long time ago. I would see Ron out in town every once in awhile and catch up. I am a retired community health nurse. I saw his first wife as a patient at one time.
I'm so very sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy and most heartfelt prayers.
Sincerely,
Vicky Sue

“ Ron was a great friend and I enjoyed working with him. He was extremely laid back and quiet. I never saw him excited and there were times he could have been. If I needed help on a project or info about the job, he was the person I went looking for. We had good times away from work also and I really enjoyed camping and floating the local rivers. One trip stood out for me. We came across some rapids floating around a bend and a tree branch just above the water knocked my wife, Laura, along with Ron's little dog, in the water. Ron jumped in and rescued his dog while Laura continued down the river. I was holding the raft and trying to keep Ron's wife Carolyn from following Laura down the river. We were all soaked except Carolyn, whose hair was dry and PERFECT. They were great people! Tom and Laura Hinkebein
