“Dewayne and Debra Bryant have been our next door neighbors at The Current River in Van Buren, MO for close to 20 years. My wife "Carla" and I always enjoyed the friendly conversations with Dewayne and Debra. We will miss Dewayne so much! We appreciated his fortitude for getting things accomplished around our river community on the banks of The Beautiful Current River. We especially thankful for the purchasing of the surrounding property to maintain our sanctuary at "The River". We are also sending a special thanks for maintaining the gravel and the river access for all of us. We hope you and your family can find peace during this difficult time. Many condolences from the bottom of our hearts. May God Bless you all!

“ Roy as you called him, he was my cousin an I always called him Dewayne. we grew up off and on together but lost track as we got older. I was also law enforcement in Perry County and later opened a vocational school in Cape Girardeau. The last two times I saw Dewayne was at the Show Me Center at Cape when David Copperfield was the show that night. The second time he was picking up my Aunt and his mom from the Lutheran Home to take her out to dinner. I was visiting my dad during his rehabilitation from an attack on him at his home. I visited my Aunt Mazie there at that time also. One correction I would like to make is who Aunt Mazie's mother was. Her mother was Ellen Estes same as my mom, Hazel Estes Bettiegrue. She was mom's youngest sister and her and I according to Uncle Roy were carbon copies in pictures at are varying ages. I loved Aunt Mazie very much and she wanted to adopt me when I was very young. My mom died when I had just turned 6 yrs. old. and I remember begging my dad to let me live with her forever. He wasn't' around that much and I know I would have had a loving home and mom would have wanted it that way. Aunt Mazie lived with mom and dad in order to finish school after grandma Ellen died. My mom was one of the older children in a family of 9. Dewayne will be missed and I am so sorry I could did not know about his death. Until today, from a new long lost cousin of mine Jeffrey Estes, who I got in touch with of FaceBook a couple of days ago, he who moved away many years ago. Rest in peace Dewayne and I know you are with our family now in Heaven. My deepest sympathies to Dewayne's family, may God bring you peace and comfort in this most trying time.

I will add to above, Dewayne and Jimmy and I played together a lot in the backyard on the swing set. Dewayne got upset when Aunt Mazie and Uncle Roy wanted to adopt me. He said, "I don't want no stinky girls around". lol We were I'm guessing the age about 9 at that time. We were only a few months apart in age and competitive with each other, all in fun. He knew I would beat him at playing the piano. He was a good cousin and Jimmy was easier to get along with but that is only because Dewayne and I were too much alike. I will miss him but I will always have those special memories.

“ Dwayne always positive in wanting our country to turn back to God. He was always sharing what we could do to be used of God and lead others in our path to truth and freedom. Our hearts go out to Debra and his daughter. We were so fortunate that God put Dwayne and Debra in our lives! We will cherish the precious memories and will continue to pray for Debra and his daughter. May the comfort of the Holy Spirit minister to Debra and his daughter, strengthen and comfort them in the home going of Dwayne.
