“ David was one of the kindest men I have ever known. He always had a kind word to say, never anything negative. The heavens have new star. And our lives have been more enriched to have known him. He will be greatly missed.

“ I know that my life is better for having known David and his family. He was always there with a kind word, a fascinating insight, or just time to let a friend know how he felt. Though I moved away from SEMO I've never forgotten David and the friendship we shared. Godspeed my friend -- and may flights of angels sing the to thy rest.
