“ *Aunt Ruth was always my favorite! Her smile was infectious and her laugh made me feel warm! I loved to hug her with that soft skin! After my grandma died, she told me stories of my grandma I'd never heard and it comforted me to see Grandma that way! I know they are so happy to be seeing each other again today. I love you Aunt Ruth! You'll be so missed, but I can't think of a better place for a sweet soul like yours. Love always, little Annie

My aunt Ruth was the kind of woman that made me smile even at my worst. I'm going to miss how she and I could talk for hours and about anything. You walk the streets of gold in paradise aunt Ruth I will miss you. Meer me down by the river! I love you so much.

Aunt Ruthie was one of those people, that makes you stop and think of what a great honor it was to have her as our Aunt. She was a sweet and wonderful person. I grew up with her and was always able to talk to her about anything. Our family reunions were something we all looked forward to, because we got to see her there. She will be missed by all who knew and loved her. Our hearts go out to her family. We have all been blessed to have her as a big part of our family. She is with all of the family that she has lost over the years and one day we will all meet again. We send our love ... Naomi (Moore) Elliott and family ... Jim (Jimbo) Moore and family. We'll all miss you Aunt Ruthie, very much.
