“ Where do I begin? Santon was a light in a dark world. We all have people who cross our path for one reason or another and I am so blessed that he crossed mine. He had a smile that could light up a room. He loved with his whole heart. He was always asking his grandma Mary, “ How is Ms Brenda?” “ She is working too hard.” I know that heaven has gained another angel. He will be greatly missed. We will shed our tears but Santon is in a glorious place not made by human hands. He can sit by the river of life and walk on streets of gold. Most of all he will be able to talk with Jesus our Savior. Till we meet again Santon, I will think of you often. You are at peace 🙏🙏 Love you always, Ms. Brenda
