I'm really shocked to hear of Scott Reynolds' passing. Although we've never met in person but we met online via an online group, Scott always had a real fully blunt response, he made us all laugh, he certainly knew how to make our day. I always thought this guy had a real good sense of humor. My condolences to your friends and family, I shall miss all the jokes and laughter you gave us, you will be certainly missed. Rest In Peace my friend. Your memory is a blessing to all of us.

“ In loving memory of my friend Scott Reynolds . You were a man that looked to see the beauty in things that others may or never tried to see anything remotely beautiful in others. When you loved you gave your all. You were willing to help others..Blessed are those who are able to see the beauty in things that no one else would try and see and try to light up their life so they could see the beauty within theirself...Gone but not forgotten. I will remember our many talks down through the years, laughs and shedding of tears...
