“ I was on a camping trip with my Mom in 1975 at a bluegrass festival on Castor River it was a bonfire 🔥 party and everyone was trying to get me to play guitar for them.
I was 8 years old and was very shy and started to cry because I was so scared, Scott Shivelbine stood up from his chair and said, “ Adam if you play us a little song I will give you a brand new Guitar because I own a Music Store in Cape Girardeau Mo”
I played “ Blackbird” and he sent me a brand new guitar to my house in Poplar Bluff Mo couple of weeks later just like he said!
Big deal for an aspiring 8 year old guitarist!
I ended up spending my life as a very dedicated guitarist proving to be a fine musician “
Scott did something very special for me when I was just a kid, didn’t know me just an act of sheer kindness “ he was about 23 years old at the time “

“ Sad to read about this. I haven't seen Scott since 1987 but well remember him late on a Saturday afternoon - he and I appeared to be the only ones in the store. Talked about people we knew and other pleasantries. Always a nice fellow. My respects and condolences.
