“ Shane was very supportive after my daughter Jessi died. He was friends with my husband and didn't know me at all. He would always reach out to let us know he was thinking about and praying for us.

“ Shane, I remember when your mom found out she was pregnant with you, I was the first to know I was 13 yrs old, I was so happy, then they moved to Colorado and you were born there, first time I saw you was in November, you had tummy issues and cried alot, so I held and bounced you on my knees as much as I could. When you stopped crying and asleep you were at peace, I pray you are at peace now also. You are so loved and will be missed by people and animals alike. ❤️ my heart hurts for your family, love and miss you always Aunt Kay
