“ Dear Jack,kids and Ellen, My deepest sympathy. Sharon and I went to grade school and high school together. I remember her walking to the bus stop and we were both appalled at the houses being torn down to make Interstate 90. Of course, we were just imitating our Dads and caught ourselves laughing.We were sick of the Dads complaining, and we were just like them! Mary Smith Craven Lakewood,Ohio

“ Dear Jack and Family: As my sister Pat said, my best memories were names attached to toothpicks on a selection of meat I was bbqing many years ago at our house on Meadow Lane. It stood out as one of the greatest practical jokes of all time and I still talk about it today. I appreciate the times when we visited you with our young family and caught Sharon up on all the news. She was very engaged and interested. We will miss her sense of humor and send our thoughts and prayers to all of you.

“ Dear Jack, Sarah, and Nick, I have such great memories of your family when you lived next door to us. I remember once when Sharon snuck over to our bar-b-cue pit and stuck little name tags signs with toothpicks in the meat. Then she waited by the window to hear our reaction when we saw the meat labeled as Jack's, Sharon's, Sarah's, and Nick's. So funny! Jenny babysat for the kids as well. Please know you all are in my thoughts and prayers.
