“ Sharon was my cousin. I haven't seen her in a very long time. We would call one another and talk about our problems, and our loved ones. Sharon was always trying to do her best. She never complained about her health issues. I am in my 80's, and my family does not want me to drive very far. My thoughts and prayers are with all of her family. Take in comfort in knowing Sharon loved all you very much. She is now in Heaven and watching over all of her family. She is loved and will be missed. Rest in Peace!

“ Sharon was a sweetheart. We'd come to visit when I was a kid, and I always saw her as the calm in the storm. I never saw her lose her patience with any of us kids, no matter how much noise we made or how much mischief we dreamed up.
